

Walter Brannen Jones Jr.

February 27, 1935 - August 15, 2025

Walter Brannen Jones Jr., a respected member of his community, passed away on August 15, 2025, in Ocala, Florida, though he was a longtime resident of Belleview, FL. Born on February 27, 1935, in Candler, Florida, Walter's journey through life was marked by unwavering commitment to his family, his faith, and his country.

Walter's early years were spent in the warm embrace of Candler before he moved on to complete his education at Boone High School in Orlando, Florida, graduating in the class of 1953. His academic achievements were only the beginning of a life characterized by dedication and service. Following high school, Walter answered the call of duty and joined the United States Air Force, where he served with distinction for 26 years. His Military Occupational Specialty was as an Administrative Technician. He was highly decorated and received many awards and ribbons during his tenure serving our country. Upon his retirement from the military, Walter's innate sense of responsibility and care turned homeward as he devoted himself to the well-being of his family members, including his father, two uncles, and his mother.

Walter's life reflected his Christian faith, which guided him in all his endeavors. He found joy and solace in the simple pleasures of life, such as watching football on television, where he appreciated the game for its own sake without pledging allegiance to any particular team. Music played a significant role in Walter's life as well; he showcased his talents by playing the piano and singing with his church choir. His son Robert fondly recalls the days of playing the trumpet in his youth.

Though Walter possessed a stoic personality, his love for his family was evident in the selfless acts that characterized his life. He is survived by his loving sons, Robert Jones and wife Roberta, Edward Jones; his daughter, Joanne Fuller; and his cherished grandchildren, Nick, Michelle, Christopher, John, Jade, Jared, Joshua, Rusty and Tracie as well as 13 great-grandchildren who will miss their patriarch dearly. Walter also leaves behind his brother, Charles Jones (Judy). He is predeceased by his brother, Olin Jones, whose wife Pat remains to honor Walter's memory along with numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Walter Brannen Jones Jr. will be remembered as a loving, faith-filled, and selfless man, whose actions spoke louder than words. His legacy of quiet strength and unwavering care for others will continue to inspire all who knew him. As we bid farewell to Walter, we take solace in the knowledge that his life was well-lived and that his impact on the world around him was as profound as it was humble. He now rests, having fulfilled his earthly duties, leaving behind a tapestry of memories woven with love and service.

“ My brother, Walter, was a kind, caring person who willingly served his family, his country and his community! To me he was an example in the way he cared for all of his family. In his latter years, through difficult times, he stood strong in his faith and his committed service to our Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you, dear Lord, for allowing me to have such a wonderful older brother who loved me, taught me and challenged me throughout our lives together!
