“ Dear Duval Family, Please accept my deepest condolences regarding Wanda. Although I do not know your family personally, I wanted to share some comforting scriptures with you that have helped me in my recent losses. Revelation 21:4 shows us what God, by means of his Kingdom will soon do for us. No more sickness, sorrow, pain or death. We know these things don't exist in heaven, so the verse is referring to right here on earth! Isaiah 33:24 says at that time, 'No resident will say, "I am sick".' And chapter 25:8 says 'he will swallow up death forever'. My favorite is Job 14:14-15 and 1Corinthians 15:26, also John 5:28-29, Acts 15:24. May these verses bring you peace and comfort. Sincerely, C. Santana

“ To the family and friends of Wanda. I would like to extend my deepest condolences to all of you for your loss. The death of a loved one is very difficult to accept and even harder to understand. However Jehovah the God of all comfort promises in Revelations 21:3,4 that soon death will be no more neither mourning nor outcry or pain the former things have passed away. May these words provide you with a measure of comfort now and in the days ahead.

“ May peace and comfort come from above, at this very difficult time. "The Lord is my Shepherd. I will lack nothing. In grassy pastures he makes me lie down; He leads me to well-watered resting-places. He refreshes me. Though I walk in the valley of deep shadow, I fear no harm, for you are with me." Psalms 23

“ It's sad when these things happen, that we lose someone we care about and have known most or all of our lives. An unsettling void has appeared since I heard the news. I admired and respect her ability to make tough decisions. We know she loved her family, had the superb ability to grow anything, and will be missed by many.

“ As a long time friend of Harvey's, I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of his mom. She was always kind and welcomed me at the Lake community in Kentucky. May she have a peaceful Journey and fly with the angels. Go with God. And Harvey, may your family be at peace as well. Your Bud, Gary, Monica, and Zack
