

Warren James Primmar

February 13, 1952 - December 6, 2025

Warren James Primmar, Jr., age 73, of Ocala, Florida, passed away on December 6, 2025, in Ocala. He was born on February 13, 1952, in Utica, New York, to the late Warren James Primmar, Sr. and Helen (Cvetezar) Primmar.

Raised in Clayville, New York, Warren graduated from Sauquoit Valley High School in June 1971. Four years later, he married Janice Minutti at her parents' home in Sauquoit. Together, they made their home in the area for twenty-five years before relocating to Florida in 2001. Though they later divorced in 2007, they shared three children together.

Warren had a love for motorcycles and in his younger years, dirt bike racing. He competed in many hare scramble events and enjoyed both the challenge of the sport and the camaraderie it brought. In later years, he preferred a quiet, independent lifestyle and split his time between Smithfield, Virginia, and Ocala, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his daughter, Holly (Jamey) Griesser; his sons, Robert and James Primmar; his brothers, Ronald and Paul Primmar; as well as several cousins.

The family will announce memorial arrangements at a later date.

Tribute Wall

RP

“ Warren was my best friend in high school and the first few months of college. We got into more trouble than six people. We lost touch for awhile after I joined the military but we got back together a few years ago while he was doing Work Kamper stuff n we had great visit in Las Vegas where he stayed with my wife n I for a couple weeks seeing the sites. Rest in peace my friend Will miss you.

Robert Philpotts - December 26, 2025 at 05:19 PM