“ We are so thankful the Lord brought our two families together 21 years ago. Our lives have been woven together through hard times and happy times -- with lots of love and prayer throughout. You and Wes have been wonderful friends, and we treasure the memories we made together. The physical absence of someone dear -- whom we are used to seeing, and touching, and relating to -- is very difficult to process. But the truth of eternal life in Jesus is actually more real than what we can see around us every day. You know this, but it's good to say it again: GOD IS GOOD. He loves His children. And what He has prepared for us, when we don't need these temporary bodies anymore, is beyond amazing! We look forward to seeing dear Wes again!!We love you! (the Featherstone & Lopez families)
