“ Uncle Will represented the best of the greatest generation. He was extremely proud of his service, and although severely wounded in Europe, and living with a life of discomfort, I never heard a single complaint from him. I was surprised and very saddened to hear of his passing. My wife, sisters and I had an opportunity of visiting Uncle Will and Aunt Helen a year and half ago. As we grew up we always had Sauerbraten and Potato Balls at our grandparents house in Astoria Queens. The fried potato balls were always the best at supper time. Uncle Will had found a place in Ocala that served Sauerbraten, so we all, along with our cousin Carol, had a "family dinner" as we used to do in Astoria. The "kids" even got a chance to sit at the grown up table this time. Our prayers and thoughts are with Aunt Helen, Judy, Carol and Susie.

“ Uncle Will always had a smile on his face and may your fond memories of him make you smile again soon. My most memorable time has to be the family reunions where Uncle Will would pull Aunt Helen onto the dance floor for a polka! He made good use of his one special shoe that he used to slam down just at the right time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love, Barbara and Bob
