

Willam Walker

December 31, 1969 - July 28, 2014

Obituary of Willam Walker Walker, William - 72 Ocala - William A. Walker, died at home on Monday, July 28, 2014 from a battle with cancer. He was born in Yonkers, NY and moved to Ocala from Saint Albans, VT in 2012 with his wife Mary. He owned a Software business for many years in New England. He was an amateur HAM radio operator, a model railroad hobbyist and a good shuffleboard player. He loved art and creating art along with a love of classical music. He and his wife Mary loved traveling via cruises or driving. He was the Chairman of Saint Albans Select Board prior to moving to Ocala. Through several monumental health challenges in the past few years he remained an optimist and trouper through it all. He demonstrated a sense of strength, love and courage through out his life that was exemplary. He is survived by his loving wife Mary Walker - his children Jeffery and Jennifer Walker, William "Richie" and Holly Richardson and Jeffery and Andrea Kelley - his grandsons Jared Richardson, Evan Richardson, Curtis Richardson, Jason Walker, Aidan Kelley and Ryan Kelley. Dad - we will always be with you and you with us. We love you. A celebration of life for William will be held this Thursday July 31, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. at the Candler Hills Community Center in On Top of the World in Ocala. There will be refreshments following the celebration. Roberts Bruce West Funeral Homes (352) 854-2266 made the arrangements. “ Mary and family, I am sadden to hear of Bill's passing. I will always remember him for his mentoring in amateur radio here in St. Albans. He was a valued member of our St. Albans Amateur Radio Club. I will also remember his dedication to the Town of St. Albans, service on the select board, doing what he could to make our town a better place. Bill, thank you for all you did for me and all of us here in St. Albans, VT. Rest peacefully my friend!!!

“ We've only know Bill for a couple of years, but in that time we found a true friend. From the beginning he made us feel at ease. His sense of humor made us laugh so many times. We will treasure our memories of our time together with Bill. He will be missed. Our love to Mary in this time of sorrow. May God give you courage.
