

Willie Mallard

February 19, 1943 - December 12, 2020

Willie Dwight Mallard died at home in his sleep. Willie was born in Lake Worth, Florida, but lived most of his life in Ft. Pierce, Florida, where he attended Dan McCarty High School and played half-back on their "Fighting Eagles" football team. In 1961 he joined the Air Force and was stationed at Kincheloe Air Force Base in Chippewa County on the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. He was employed with the Florida Flood Control for over ten years and retired from the Vero Beach Correctional Institute in Vero Beach, Florida. After his retirement, he published a book entitled "Get A Job". He loved the outdoors, writing music and lottery scratch off tickets. He was preceded in death by his wife Betty Jean Pyke Mallard. He is survived by daughter, Sherrie L. Mallard; sister, Carylon Mallard Harrison; grand daughter, Crystal L. Morine; grandson, Michael A. Morine; niece, Leslie Harrison and nephew, Landis W. Knight.