“ Mom,

I am just stopping by to say I love you and I pray for you even beyond the veil. Thank you for giving me some of the best memories of my life. I am grateful to have been raised by you during the time of freedom for kids when that time came. I am fond of the memories and how you made my life full of fun as a kid and with my best friends. I appreciate how we got to explore the world and go to fun places several times. I wish we could have did more things and see more places, including having you see Georgia and her first Christmas. Thanks for showing me what mattered most to you, you inspired me mother. I know you are happy up there with others in our family that I miss. I am happy for you, you a great woman. I will always remember, thanks for visiting me in my dreams you are always welcome to come back as often as you like. I forgive you for your imperfections we all have them and I am grateful for how hard you tried throughout your life. I have a new daughter now I wish you could have met. We named her after the isles of the sea. Isla. May you be honored in Eternal Glory mother, and until we see you again keep me in your prayers. I always knew what you stood for and I hope to have your spirit and inspiration in my household always. You inspired my wife and she misses you and your friendship. Be one with God and continue your righteousness you will never be alone even on the other side. May you have the peace you deserved your entire life. I love you Mom.
